Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Peddicord have returned from Mt. Lake Park, where they spent the week-end and the Fourth as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark, Jr.

Married Here

The marriage of Miss Irene Meyer and William Edgar was solemnized at the Grace Lutheran Church in this city at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon with the Rev. Roy J. Meyer, a brother of the bride, officiating. The bride was becomingly gowned in a suit of black and gray trelaine with a full hat of black and white felt. She wore a corsage of sweet peas and valley lilies. The ceremony was witnessed by several near friends and relatives.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the Reverend Mr. and Mrs. Meyer on Coleman avenue, following which Mr. and Mrs. Edgar left for a wedding journey to Edinburgh and other cities, after which they will be at home at Wheeling.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August C. Meyer of Wheeling and is a popular member of the younger society set of that city. For some time she had been soloist at the St. John's P. E. Church. She is also a star in musical circles of that city.

Mr. Britt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Britt of Wheeling and is connected with the Riverside Bridge Co. Announcements reading as follows have been issued:

To Columbia
Prof. and Mrs. E. W. Buckey and Miss Cora Kincaid, the latter a teacher in the Fairmont High School and Miss Maud Hull, a member of the Normal School faculty, left yesterday by automobile for New York where Professor Buckey and the Misses Kincaid and Hull will attend Columbia University.

From Honeymoon
Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Byrnes, whose marriage was an event of last Thursday in this city returned this morning from their honeymoon spent in the East. They are at the home of the former mother, Mrs. Lawrence Byrnes, on High street for the present, but will take up their residence on Walnut avenue soon.

Guests Here.
Mrs. F. S. Politt and daughter, Miss Ruth Politt of Huntington, former residents of this city, are visiting here at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Watts in Pierpont avenue and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Mink in Walnut avenue. The guests are here during the week of the Reverend Mr. Politt, who was presiding elder of the Southern M. E. Church.

To Have Wiener Roast.
The Woodmen of the World and the Woodmen Circle will hold a wiener roast at Midway Park near Mannington tomorrow evening. Trucks will leave the K. of P. Hall in Main street at 6:30 and will convey the members and their friends to the park where the outing will be held.

Guest Coming.
Mrs. E. M. Wellener of Baltimore will arrive here tomorrow to be the guest for several weeks of her daughter, Mrs. W. Nelson Beale, and Mr. Beale at their home in Belmont avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prinz, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Beale, returned yesterday to their home in Baltimore.

Returns Home.
Miss Ruth Heintzelman returned yesterday from Wellesley College at Wellesley, N. Y., where she attended commencement. Miss Heintzelman was graduated from Wellesley College. Following the commencement she visited for several weeks with friends in New York City and elsewhere.

Country Club Dance.
Members and friends of the Fairmont Country Club spent a pleasant Fourth at the club yesterday. Many of the members took their families out in the morning and spent the whole day in the country. A delightful dinner was served at 6:30 and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing. The dance was undoubtedly the best that has been given here in several months and was attended by nearly a hundred couples.

"Chink" Gambol's orchestra of Morgantown played the music which was enjoyed by the guests. The display of fireworks furnished by some of the members. The dance lasted until 1 o'clock. Many out-of-town guests were present for the holiday program, which was the best held here in many years.

To Harrisville.

Prof. and Mrs. Otis G. Wilson and son Guy are leaving the latter part of this week for Harrisville, W. Va., where they will spend a couple of weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wilson. Their son Vance has been there for some time.

Break Camp

A party of six young women who occupied Linn Hurst on the Valley River for a week broke camp Sunday and returned to their homes in this city. In the party were the Misses Ruth Merifield, Lena Hamilton, Lucie Trigg, May Montgomery, Fala Westfall, Geraldine Pinehart.

At Camp Toralzel

Camp Toralzel at Poplar Island was a busy place over the Fourth of July with a party of about twenty two people at the camp. Most of the campers went to Poplar Island Saturday afternoon and remained until last evening. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Mills and daughter, Betty Mills, and the Misses Helen Shutlesworth, Olive Dunham, Meredith Kline, Carrie Sumpter, Frances McCray, Pauline Bogess, Bessie Hunt, Ruth Frances Morgan and the latter's guest, Miss Brantly Carter of Chatham, Va.; and the Messrs. Family Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Baldwin and son Clifford of Cleveland, Ohio, were the honor guests at a delightfully appointed dinner party, yesterday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Baldwin's sister, Mrs. Clarence Criss in Wood street. The affair was arranged as a family reunion to honor Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin and son who are here visiting, and was to have been held in the open. The weather of the day prevented this, however, and the dinner was held at the home of Mrs. Criss. Covers were laid for twenty-six, and the guests included the honor guests, the host and hostess and family, George Cordray and family, T. L. Cordray and Charles I. Cordray and Charles I. Cordray are brothers and sisters. A sumptuous dinner was served, and the afternoon was delightfully spent.

At Parker's Park

Mr. and Mrs. E. Jarvis Parker entertained at their home, "Parker's Park," near Baxter, yesterday with a delightful Fourth of July party. A picnic dinner was a feature of the entertainment, and this was served beneath the trees, during the afternoon stunts of all kinds afforded entertainment for the guests, and later in the evening fireworks were put off. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the host and hostess were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clayton and sons, Carroll and Robert, Mrs. James F. Boor and son Charles, all of Fairmont; Howard J. Wadsworth of Morgantown, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. McDowell and children, Donald, Dorothy Martha and Marion of High Lanes; Miss Jessie Hawkins and Miss Mabel Noy of Riverside; Misses Boore of Grant Town, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clayton and children, Mabel Olive, Corinne, Marshall, Jeanette and Alberta; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ice celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage yesterday afternoon at their beautiful home, "Maple Point," at Barrackville. Invitations had been issued some time ago for the event, and during the afternoon nearly three hundred guests were received.

Snapdragons, sweet peas, nasturtiums and other flowers grown in the gardens of the Ice home were lavishly used in the interior decorations.

The hostesses of the occasion were the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ice, Mrs. John Steele, Mrs.

Fred Talbot and the Misses Margaret, Stella and Milla D. Ice. They were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. O. F. Lough and the Misses Edna Amos, Willa Straight, Beatrice Amos, Edith Ice, Halie and Anna Martin, and Grace Robinson.

In the dining room, where ice and cake were served in yellow and white, the table was centered with a cluster of snapdragons and other garden flowers.

Mrs. Lummie Lowe of Fairview, who was bridesmaid at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Ice fifty years ago, was a guest of honor. The seven children of Mr. and Mrs. Ice, a number of grandchildren and two great grandchildren were among the guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ice have seven children, the five daughters who were hostesses and two sons, Clarence and John Ice.

Mrs. Ice was before her marriage Miss Mary Elizabeth Straight and both she and Mr. Ice are natives of Marion County. Mr. and Mrs. Ice were the recipients of a number of beautiful gifts and were showered with congratulations and best wishes by their many friends.

Mrs. D. P. Lynch was the recipient of a cablegram Monday noon from Ernest Sherwood and the Rev. J. C. Broomfield, stating that they had landed safely at South Hampton and had a very pleasant voyage.
